DEDICATION

The "Warrior" staff would like to dedicate this annual to the Apollo 11 astronauts, Neil Armstrong, Edwin Aldrin, and Michael Collins, in recognition of their journey into the unknown. The magnificent feat accomplished on July 20, 1969, was far more than just a national triumph. After years of dreams and prophecies, this "small step for man, and giant leap for mankind" has become a reality. This moment symbolizes man's capacity for questioning, then conquering; then questioning again for something further beyond his reach.

ADMINISTRATION & FACULTY

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Duane Silseth, the high school principal, is both an administrator and a real friend to all students. Next year he will take over the duties of superintendent.

Mr. Dennis Schmeiss, Superintendent of Dakota Schools and principal of the elementary school at Hunter, is a dedicated administrator much interested in the welfare and education of students. Both parents and students are grateful to him for the work he did to consolidate the school districts. He has accepted the position of superintendent at Oakes, North Dakota. We wish him much success and happiness at his new job.

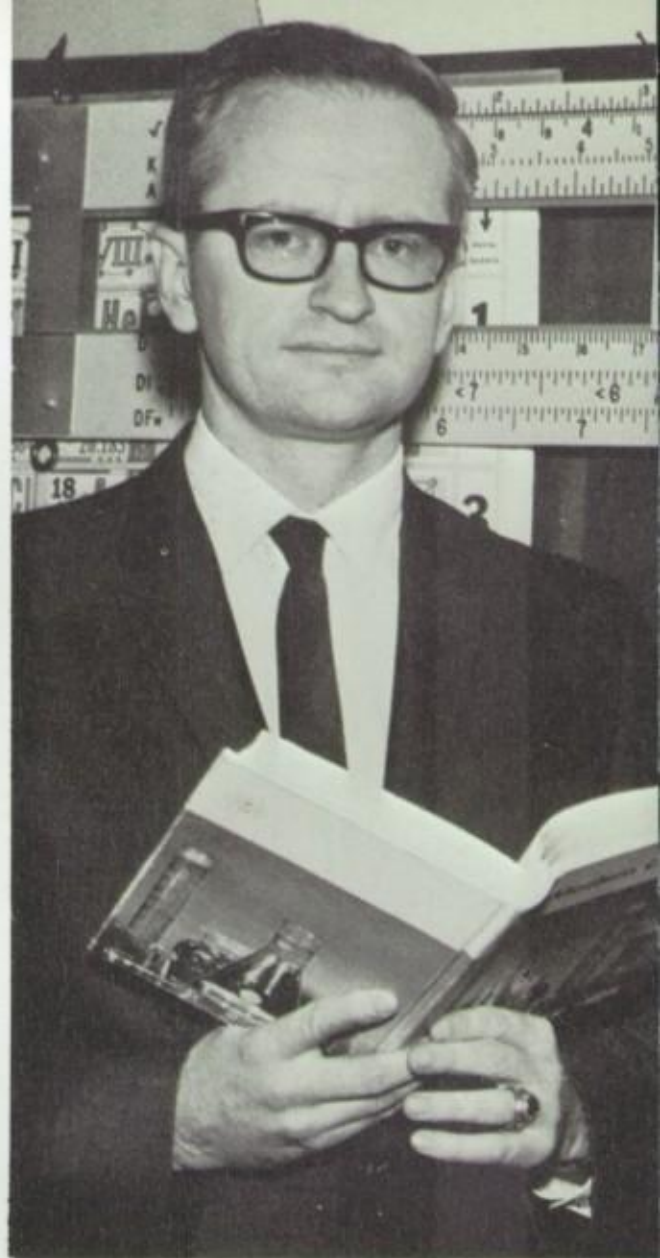

FACULTY

ABOVE LEFT: Marjorie Hill, a returning faculty member, teaches senior high English, Business, and Speech. She also advises the annual staff and paper staff. ABOVE: Rosalyn Domier, our senior high math and phy. ed. teacher returned to Dakota for her third year. (Could it be she likes us?) She also advises the GAA. CENTER: Gaylord Harter, as the students see him--"OK, take out a sheet of paper." LOWER LEFT: Tom Bryl, a first year teacher from Mayville State, came to DHS and secured the 1st place trophy for the "B" Squad. He teaches most of the business courses, boys phy. ed., and coaches girls' track. BELOW: Gaylord Harter has taught at Dakota three years and next year will take over the position of principal. He teaches social science for the senior high and is also head basketball and boys' track coach.

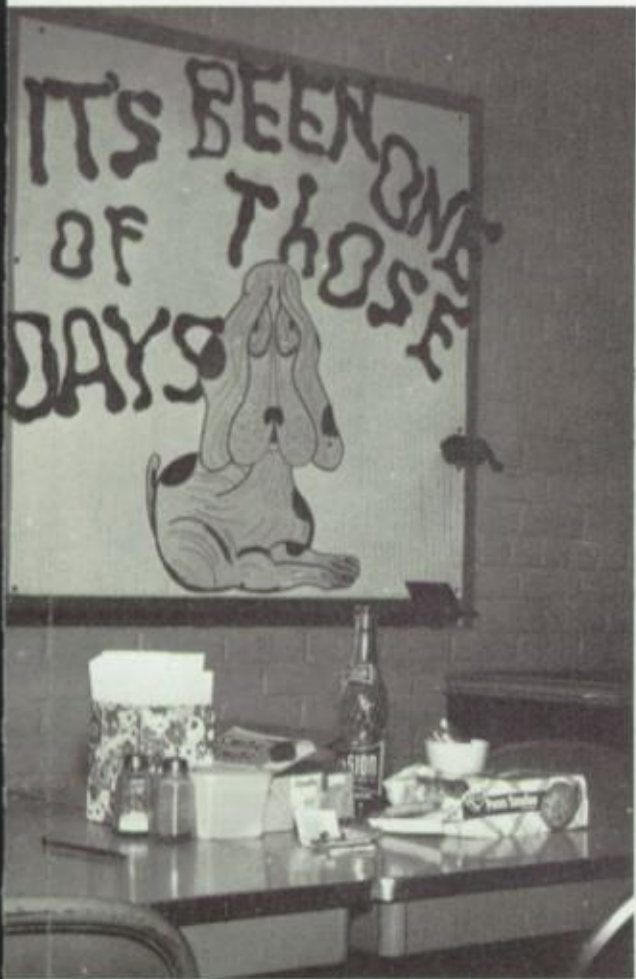

FACULTY

Warrior's pride led by Dakota Seniors

What is being a Senior?
It is lacking funds in the treasury
It is having a Snitchel, a Huey, a Miser, or a Shag.
It is sponsoring both the king and queen of homecoming.
It is muddling through senior math and physics.
It is being exempt from all finals.
It is attending the prom and banquet as guests.
It is singing the school song for the last time and feeling funny inside.
It is standing in the Hunter Gym wearing a purple cap and gown and receiving one's diploma.
It is going into a bigger world well-prepared.

FOOTBALL Warriors gain experience

The Warriors third season was marked by both victories and defeats. With only six returning lettermen, the season's outlook wasn't great, but head coach Dan McMahon discovered right from the start that the Warrior squad had great potential. Lots of hard work, grass drills, early morning and late night practices, and everyone's favorite--pushing the sled, left the team with 3-5-1 record. Outstanding on this year's team were Rick Dickson, who was unanimous choice for offensive center, and Bob Monroe, who was elected offensive running back and defensive halfback, of the All Conference Team. The spark plugs of this year's team, co-captains Terry Gebeke and Brian Johnson, helped push the team on to victory.

“A” BASKETBALL Warriors prove potential

Coach Harter and the inexperienced Warriors had the potential for a great season. Everyone's pride in the team was shown by the excellent attendance of spectators at all of the games. Because of the attitude of the players, cheerleaders, and Pep Club, our school was commended for its outstanding sportsmanship shown.

Cheerleaders Big mouths pay off

Thunderous cheers, radiant smiles, and excited spectators are all evidence of the presence of Dakota's A-squad cheerleaders at games and pep rallies throughout the year. Dakota's varsity cheerleaders received recognition for their outstanding efforts by winning the first place cheerleading trophy at the district tournament at Page. They also had a surprise at Awards Night when the coaches presented them with a trophy to thank them for all of their hard work during the 69-70 season.

TRACK Track Team triumphant

The DHS boys teams ended their fairly successful season by capturing the conference title. The girls, who had won the title for the past few years, lost it this year to another up and coming team. They were proud this year of one of their team members, Cheri Wedberg who won first place at the state track meet in the 220 yard run. The girls' coach was Mr. Tom Bryl and the boys were coached by Gaylord Harter.

The cheerleaders are TOP TO BOT-TOM, Lisa Whittier, LeAnn Stibbe, Barb Timmerman, Gwen Merrigan, Kathy Hill, and Susan Whittier.

Girl's Basketball Team

Girl's prove coordination

The D. H. S. girls basketball team and their fearless leader Mrs. Roy Folstad made known their drive and determination this season. They proved their ability in the line-up of local girls games which were scheduled during the year with such teams as Mapleton, Grandin, Argusville, and the tough one, Shanley. The team entered the Mapleton Invitational Tourney and played Argusville the first game, winning it by a comfortable margin. They squeaked by Grandin in an exciting, hair-raising game. The final night the Warriors were matched with the unbeaten Shanley Deacons. Regardless of the defeat the Warriors suffered in this game, the success of the season could be seen not only during the game but also when they happily accepted the second place trophy.

ANNUAL STAFF

Deadlines pet peeve of '70 Staff

The annual editors and their staff work many, many hours throughout the school year and summer to compile this, the 1969-70 "WARRIOR". This yearbook not only keeps a record, but brings back to life the highlights of the school year. We hope that as you gaze through these pages, both good and bad memories will remain so that the school year of 1969-70 will never be forgotten.

F.H.A.

F.H.A. Receives Honorable mention

Participation in FHA this year was outstanding, and this was a basic factor in the club's recognition as an outstanding chapter in the state. Becky Olson was elected as State Parliamentarian and went to New York to the National Convention. Other activities which the F.H. A. sponsored were Daddy Date Night, a variety show, a children's Valentine party, and a Mother's Tea.

PEP CLUB

Team spirit is stupendous

This year's Pep Club did a tremendous job of supporting our team. Attendance at ball games, both home and away, was a great success. Members cooperated by selling pop at the games to help raise money for the Athletic Banquet.

ACTIVITIES

HOMECOMING

Warriors battle Clams on rainy afternoon

Homecoming activities kicked off with a rally of speeches and cheers for the candidates. The king and queen were announced during half-time activities of the football game. Although the Warriors lost the game to the Tower City Clams, they were still fired up enough to enjoy the dance in the school gym, which was decorated by the Sophomores, with Melvin D. Burlap and His Band providing the music. A special dance was saved for the newly crowned king and queen; Terry Gebeke and Laurel Hoag.

Junior Class Play Grandad hobbles in?

Grandad stepped out, or should we say hobbled in, on November 21 during the Junior Class' presentation of the farce comedy, "Grandad Steps Out." The play proved to be a hilarious success, greatly complemented by the magnificent action skills of Grandad, played by Jeff Zimmerman. The Junior Class was honored by having Johnny Cash, portrayed by Jon Iwen, make a guest appearance. Other between-act entertainment included a vocal solo by Rick Dickson and a guitar group singing a contemporary folk song.

Senior Class Play If that's where it's at baby . . .

The Hunter Gym was "where it was at" during the performances of the Senior class play, April 24 and 25. Between the catchy title, "If That's Where It's At Baby, I'm Not Going" and the class's reputation gained from the play the year before, was well attended both nights. The large cast enabled everyone to be involved and also made Mrs. Hill's tough job even tougher. Adding to the confusion of rehearsals were many unscheduled basketball games, fights, and wrestling matches. Ghosts also were heard to add to the disorder. The chaos of the many different sets was well under control due to the assistance and cooperation of everyone and Mrs. Hill's careful direction. The play about present-day campus problems was a great success and the class left their mark to the school by painting the campus scene on the wall of the stage.

Junior-Senior Banquet Rendezvous of the stars

Stars and flowers greeted the students and teachers as they sat down to enjoy the banquet May 8 at the St. Agnes Catholic Church in Hunter. The beautiful decorations in purple, hot pink, and white were great souvenirs for the girls. Becki Olson, Junior President, welcomed everyone and Brian Johnson, Senior President, casually responded. Father Vetter gave the table blessing and everyone filled themselves with the delicious banquet meal. Following the feast Jon Iwen sang a selection after a struggle to unlock the piano. As the program continued Brian Johnson read the class prophecy with a few additions and corrections made by himself. Cheri Wedberg was selected to read the will which was made up by each student. Everyone was eager to hear Mr. Silseth's announcement of honor students for both classes. This ended the banquet honoring both classes and will be among the memories of high school.

Junior-Senior Prom Daisies Dazzle DHS

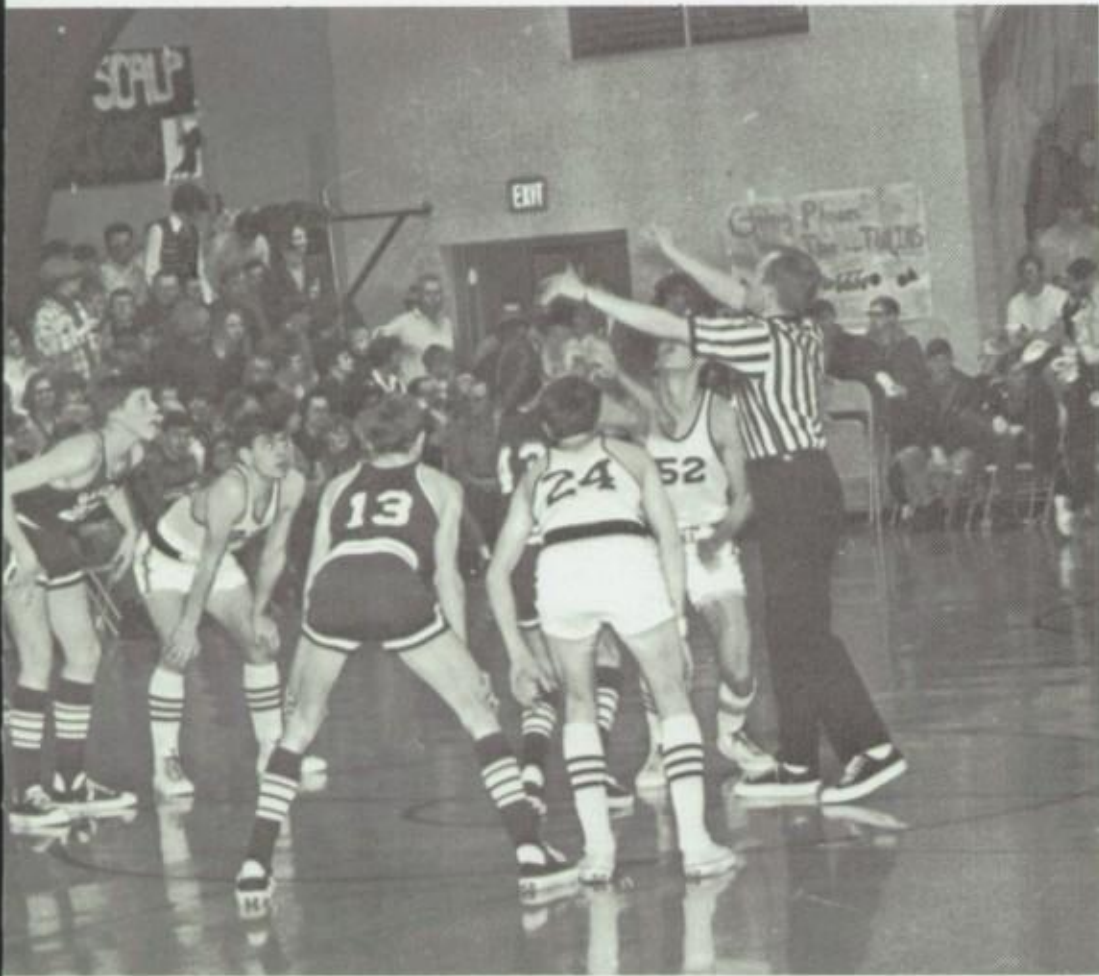

The Juniors' gift to DHS, "Daisy Daze", dazzled 53 couples at this year's formal affair and highlight of the Senior class's final school year. At 9:00 on May 8, a cool breeze followed a gentle rain. As the curious dates and spectators and also proud juniors entered the gym, the green maze was the first appearance of the flowery theme. This was a real test for the couples and we are quite sure some purposely left their compasses at home. As everyone entered the prom, the orange watering can and fountain set the theme and flowers and a beautiful mural added to the effect. Everyone was leary of the huge bumble bees and ladybugs but were great souvenirs along with the paper flowers. Junior class president, Becky Olson, led the grand march to the music played by the Grover Peterson band. As the evening wore on, the bow ties were loosened, but the "real dancers were awake and alert for the polka and waltz which was played as an extra set. Beside proving their great dancing abilities, the dancers also received a few laughs but only from the jealous ones. After the final set was played, the couples retraced their steps back through the maze and went their separate ways to complete the evening of fun.

AWARDS NIGHT

A special program was held May 20 to honor students who made outstanding achievements during the past year, either scholastically or in extra-curricular activities. The Constitution Award was presented to Connie Frost by Attorney Shelley Lashkowitz. Cheri Wedberg and Bradley Burgum were presented with awards for outstanding leadership, sponsored by the Danforth Found. The "Know Your State" Award was received by Bradley Burgum. Cheri Wedberg awarded for outstanding citizen presented by DAR. Bernadette Holes won the Contest, for which she won a trip to Washington, D.C. Sharon Larson won the school and district Pepsi-Cola Essay Contest. The Dakota Education Assn. presented a scholarship of fifty dollars to David Kuball. Students awarded for their scholastic performances were: Doris Hoggarth, Lugene Parkhouse, and Karen Hansen, Typing I; Glen Kopp, Chemistry and Geometry; Bill and Bruce Fisk, Spanish; Bradley Burgum and Fred Stibbe, Physics; Bonnie Porter and Marilyn Saunders, Home Ec.

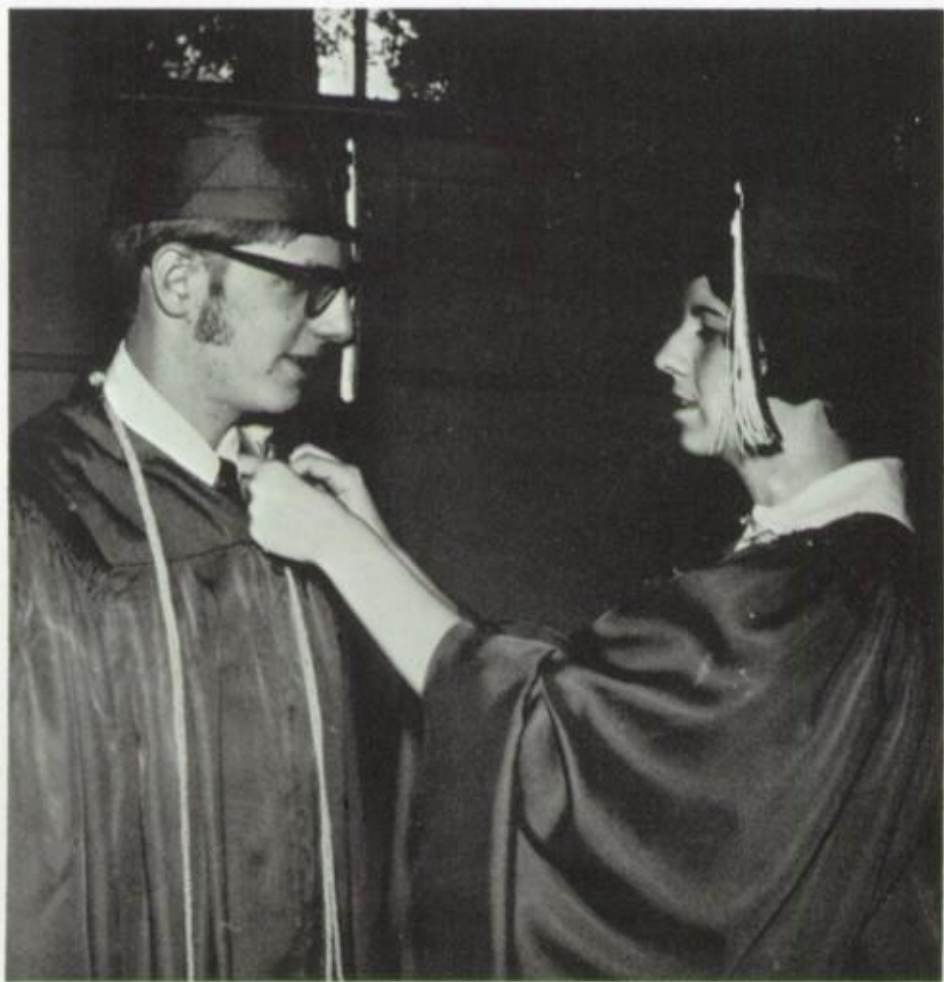

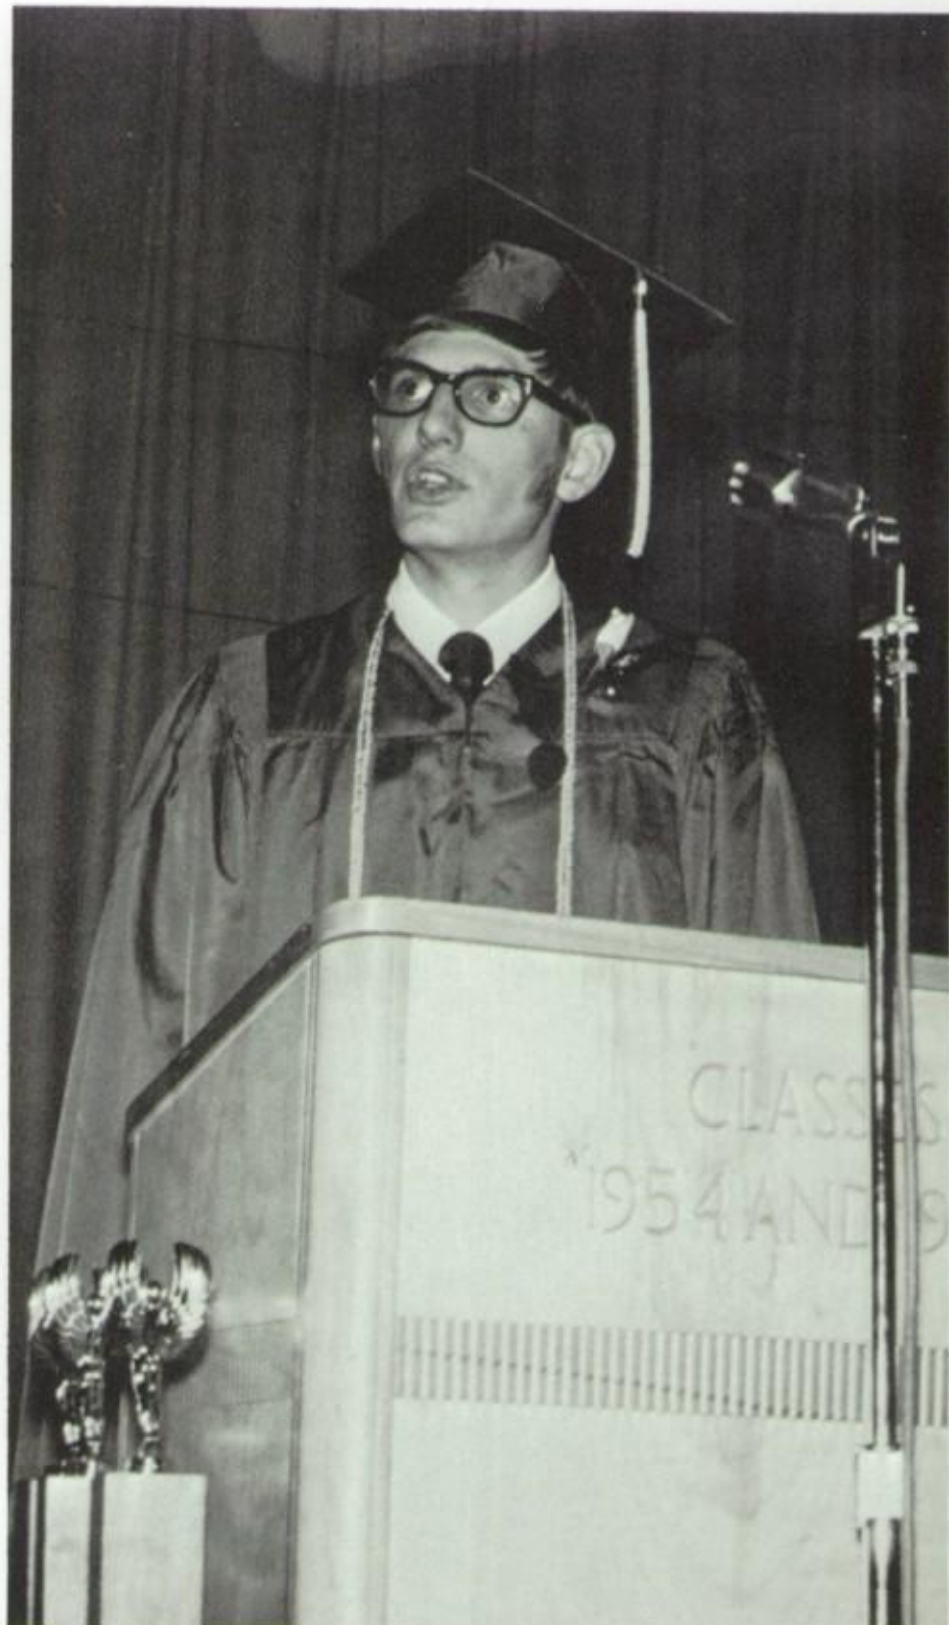

Achievements in extra-curricular activities recognized

Band and chorus members and those students who participated in the music contests were also recognized. GAA president, Sandy Wischer, Pep Club president, Peggy Zimmerman, and FHA president, Joan Zimmerman, received awards for their leadership in these organizations. Mr. Lyle Willert presented numerous awards for achievements made in FFA. Mr. Gaylord Harter, head basketball coach, awarded the following athletes for performances made during the past year: Gary Otteson, best rebounder; Keith Peltier, best free-throw percentage and best defensive player; Brad Burgum received the "Oil Can" award. He was chosen by his teammates to get this award for his great enthusiasm and team spirit at all games. Don Wilhelm was chosen most valuable player. Gary Otteson and Keith Peltier were both chosen for the Tall Towers conference team. Mr. Daniel McMahon, head football coach, presented the following awards for football: Don Havelange, best defensive player; Rick Dickson, best offensive player; Don Wilhelm, "Oil Can" award; Terry Gebeke, most valuable player. Both Rick Dickson and Bob Monroe were chosen for the all-conference team. The high school cheerleaders for this year were also recognized. They are: Sandy Foster, Sandy Wischer, Cheri Wedberg, Darcy Skunes, Jody Stibbe, and Bernadette Holes.

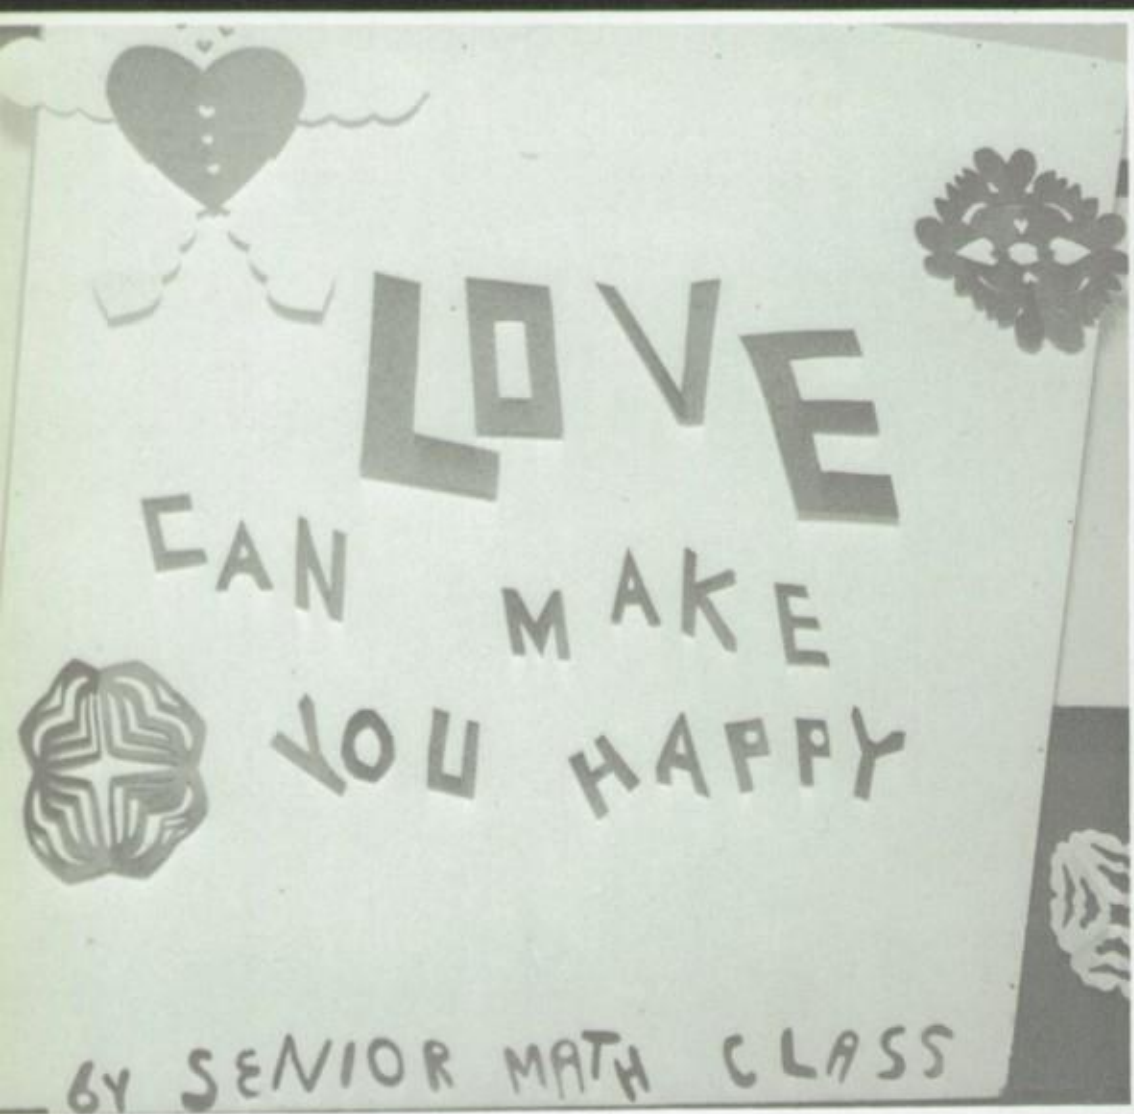

GRADUATION Seniors walk out in purple blaze of glory

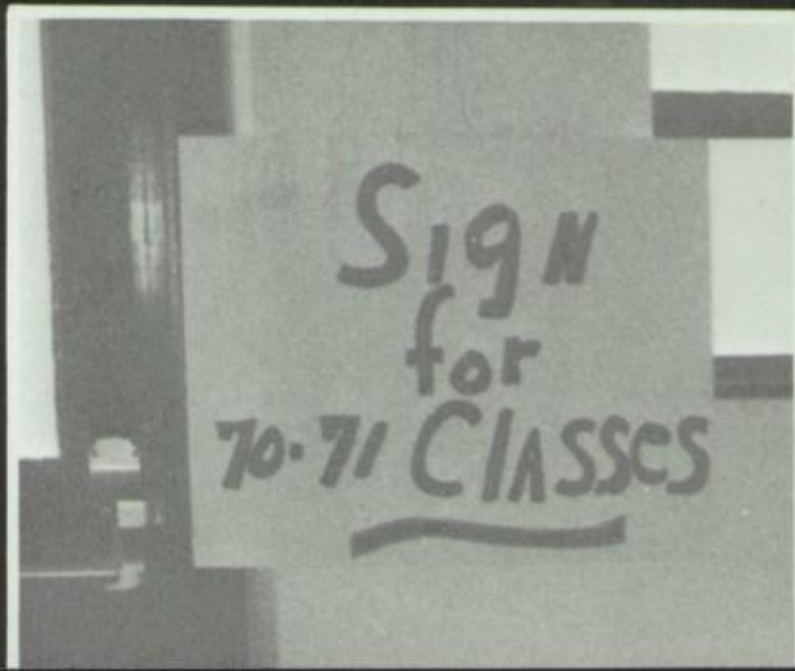

"To Strive, To Seek To Find, and not to yield." was the motto of the 1970 graduating class. Commencement exercises were held May 27, 1970 in the Hunter auditorium. Dr. Clair T. Blikre was the guest speaker for the evening. Five honor students were chosen, instead of the traditional valedictorian and salutatorian, because of the small differences between averages. Bradley Burgum was chosen by the other honor students to give the honor address. Presentation of the class was made by Principal Duane Silseth followed by the awarding of diplomas by Bernard Holes Jr., President of the School Board.

The memories of this year which the students are so proud of may fade as these elements are replaced by fresh memories of the future classes. It is the wish of the staff that as the reader reviews this story of the past year he is reminded of the excellence of his school since the consolidation and that he may be inspired to continue this attitude in every facet of school life.
